Mrs. Donnini

October 4, 2013

Dear Parents,

We've had a very busy week! We are still working on our everyday routines. Keep reading at home and logging your minutes. It is expected that each student read 180 minutes or more to receive a Pizza Hut certificate. Happy Reading!

Go SAXON beat the TROJANS!

we are learning

Reading

We are still working on building stamina for Read to Self. Right now we can read without stopping for 18 minutes! Our goal is 25. We worked on retelling the story using beginning, middle and end.

Writing

We are finishing up our work on complete sentences. This will be an ongoing skill the kiddos will be working on.

math $+\frac{2}{4}$

We worked on skip counting this week. We also made our very own number line and practiced skip counting.

Science/Social Studies

We did a sink and float experiment and we learned more about home rules versus school rules.
